Lisa looks as if she has it made.

She has turned her nomadic childhood and forensic psychology training into a successful career as a stress management trainer for humanitarian aid workers. She lives in Los Angeles, travels the world, and her first novel has just been published to some acclaim. But as she turns 31, Lisa realizes that she is still single, constantly on airplanes, and increasingly wondering where home is and what it really means to commit to a person, place, or career. When an intriguing stranger living on the other side of the world emails her out of the blue, she must decide whether she will risk trying to answer those questions.

Her decision will change her life.

Praise for Love At The Speed Of Email

“A travel memoir with a deep soul” (Leeana Tankersley, author of Found Art: Discovering Beauty in Foreign Places)

“A modern-day fairy tale” (Nicole Baart, best-selling author of Far From Here and After the Leaves Fall)

“Love at the Speed of Email is part grand romance, part travel memoir and part essay on life’s most precious gifts. Lisa McKay is a phenomenal writer; clever and comedic, poignant and pitch-perfect. You will love this love story.” (Susan Meissner, award-winning author of The Shape of Mercy and A Sound Among the Trees)
